Section 5 — Geolocation

Lastly, before leaving to your next household, please collect the geolocation of this household.

This must be done in an open space, i.e. no roof or trees over your head.

Be careful when re-opening this survey from your drafts. If this survey is re-opened from your drafts at another location, the geolocation from this household will be overwritten by the new location. You must then take a new geolocation at this particular household. In other words: the final moment of re-opening this survey must be at this household in order to store the correct geolocation.

Please collect geolocation:

Geolocation captured as Lat/Lon pair.

Section 6 — Final Notes

Before submitting your survey, only if necessary, please leave us your final notes that were not already mentioned previously. Please do not bring hand-written notes for us at STAT and kindly note everything here.

Final notes (if necessary):

Now you may submit the survey.
